SIR,

I beg the honor to state that owing to certain discrepancies in the detailed statements of credits under the head "Advances recoverable" for the months of March, April and May 1903 received in this office on the 11th July 1903 from the Deputy Commissioner, Treasury Department Mysore, the statements were returned for necessary explanation with this office docket No. 329/160 dated 17th July 1903 and these together with the statement for the month of June have not yet been retransmitted by the Deputy Commissioner though several reminders have been sent followed up by a telegram on the 11th idem.

The delay in receipt of these statements retards the closing of the accounts and objection books finally and the latter has been kept open in
